Article 2:

For factories/enterprises whose business is of global nature that requires regular operations which cannot be halted and allowing all workers/employees to have a public holiday at the same time affects the public interests or affects the operations of the factory/enterprise, the owner or director of the factory/enterprise shall arrange workers/employees to have a public holiday as per each public holiday in a rotating manner.

In the event that there is an agreement between workers/employees and the employer or it is stipulated in the factory/enterprise's internal regulation or collective bargaining agreement (CBA), the day off of workers/employees can be taken on another day that is different from the public holiday stipulated in this Prakas.

The owner or director of factory/enterprise shall prepare a name list of workers/employees who have to take their public holiday in a rotating manner and must keep it for the inspection of the labour inspector.

During the rotating day off, the owner or director of factory/enterprise can use other workers/employees temporarily to replace the workers/employees who are taking their day off.

Article 3:

Any provision contrary to this Prakas shall be abrogated.

Article 4:

Chief of cabinet, Director General of General Department of Administration and Finance, Director General of General Department of Labour, Director General of General Department of Technical and Vocational Education and Training, and Director of Labour Inspection Department, Director of Labour Dispute Department and Directors of relevant units, workers/employees and employers shall implement this Prakas as per their respective duties from 01 January 2024 onwards.
